SALEROOM NOTICE ADDENDA & CORRIGENDA

IRISH & INTERNATIONAL ART 29 SEPTEMBER 2014

- Lot 59 The composition of this picture is similar to a drawing entitled Aran Fishermen Sorting Nets by the same artist and sold at Whyte's on 29 April 2003 as Lot 5.
- Lot 135 This work does not relate to the troubles in the North of Ireland as discussed erroneously in the catalogue entry. Rather the painting depicts a scene from road bowling, also known as 'bullets' or 'road bowls', a game of Irish origin most often played these days in Counties Armagh and Cork, and to lesser extent in other areas, most notably near Westport, County Mayo. We are grateful to the artist for his assistance in correcting this error.
